

ENANTS SECURED FOR FLATS, 14 WORD HOUSES, ROOMS, THROUGH TO-MORROW'S 30 CTS.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

COL. FELLOWS SPEAKS OUT.

Declares He Will Do Nothing to Hamper the Lexow Committee.

EX-WARD MAN HUSSEY'S STORY

Tells the Investigating Senators About Mrs. Urichitt's Arrest.

ACCUSES CHARLES A. PLACE.

Stool Pigeon Bloch Told Him that the Oppressed Woman Had Paid That Officer Money.

The old Part III. General Sessions Court room, which is the headquarters of the Lexow Committee, presented a striking contrast this morning to the scene of yesterday.

The army of clubbers had disappeared, and not a single bluecoat was to be seen. In place of the array of ruffians, convicted of brutal assaults upon unoffending citizens, the witness-box was filled with a group of anxious-looking women, who looked as if they might have had some unpleasant dealings with the police, and were dreading the ordeal for which they had been summoned.

One of them carried in her arms a small child, while another, a woman of a similar nature.

"We have a plethora of these matters," he said, "and we shall only select a few to show the committee. We could not possibly bring out every case, but we have a big pile of police-station blotters on the table before him. Capt. William Schultz, of the Delancey street station, of the Mercer street station, came in before the work began, and with them one or two patrolmen in uniform."

Senator O'Connor called the Committee to order. In the absence of Chairman Lexow, Senators Bradley, Pound and Robertson being the other members present, Mr. Coffey was not present at the opening.

Mr. Moss produced and offered in evidence a chattel mortgage, executed by David Kronman, for $70, on furniture in his house at 154 Third avenue, in support of Kronman's testimony given yesterday.

The first witness called was John H. Welch, a Jew, who said that Ward Man Hussey came to him a year ago and tried to make him pay for a sign which hung above his awning in the street.

"I said to him: 'That sign will stay longer than the brass buttons on your coat, Hussey,'" said Mr. Welch, "after that he bothered me about money, but I never paid him anything. They couldn't get anything out of me."

Mrs. Urichitt's Arrest.

The next witness was ex-Ward Man Ambrose W. Hussey, of the Delancey street station, in which precinct Mrs. Urichitt lived. He is now at Highbridge.

Hussey testified that there were very few disorderly houses in the precinct which he had in charge. He had made about ten complaints while wardman there, but had only secured three or four convictions. He admitted that he had arrested Mrs. Urichitt on the night of May 10, 1898, on the complaint of one Joseph Wardman.

Wardman Edward Shalvey was with him when the arrest was made, and took her to the station.

The witness said he had never demanded any money from her, as Mrs. Urichitt had testified, and knew of no one who had asked her for money. A man named Joseph Bloch had met him in the street who knew Mrs. Urichitt.

"This man Bloch told me afterwards that Mrs. Urichitt had paid money to a man in the Eleventh Precinct named Charles A. Place," said Hussey.

"Is Mr. Place in court?" asked Mr. Moss.

A good-looking young man rose up in the audience and addressed by Police Officer Hussey as Place. He said he had lived at Plainfield, N. J.

Hussey said that Bloch was formerly employed by him as a stool pigeon. His examination was interrupted at this point by Mr. Coffey, who had come in with District-Attorney Fellows.

Mr. Coffey said he had an important communication to make affecting the District-Attorney's office. He recalled the fact that the Committee had been hampered during its investigation by the fear of witnesses that they would be indicted, arrested and railroaded to State Prison for their testimony. He testified, and that Col. Fellows had appeared before the Committee and guaranteed that no witness who came forward would be interfered with.

"I want to say," said Mr. Coffey, "that Col. Fellows has carried out his promise faithfully, and far from interfering with our witnesses, he has placed the machinery of his office at the disposal of the Committee in securing indictments against witnesses who have refused to testify. I say this in justice to the District-Attorney's office, and to show his attitude toward this Committee."

"If any of our witnesses have been interfered with it has not been by the

ENANTS SECURED FOR FLATS, 14 WORD HOUSES, ROOMS, THROUGH TO-MORROW'S 30 CTS.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

COL. FELLOWS SPEAKS OUT.

Declares He Will Do Nothing to Hamper the Lexow Committee.

EX-WARD MAN HUSSEY'S STORY

Tells the Investigating Senators About Mrs. Urichitt's Arrest.

ACCUSES CHARLES A. PLACE.

Stool Pigeon Bloch Told Him that the Oppressed Woman Had Paid That Officer Money.

The old Part III. General Sessions Court room, which is the headquarters of the Lexow Committee, presented a striking contrast this morning to the scene of yesterday.

The army of clubbers had disappeared, and not a single bluecoat was to be seen. In place of the array of ruffians, convicted of brutal assaults upon unoffending citizens, the witness-box was filled with a group of anxious-looking women, who looked as if they might have had some unpleasant dealings with the police, and were dreading the ordeal for which they had been summoned.

One of them carried in her arms a small child, while another, a woman of a similar nature.

"We have a plethora of these matters," he said, "and we shall only select a few to show the committee. We could not possibly bring out every case, but we have a big pile of police-station blotters on the table before him. Capt. William Schultz, of the Delancey street station, of the Mercer street station, came in before the work began, and with them one or two patrolmen in uniform."

Senator O'Connor called the Committee to order. In the absence of Chairman Lexow, Senators Bradley, Pound and Robertson being the other members present, Mr. Coffey was not present at the opening.

Mr. Moss produced and offered in evidence a chattel mortgage, executed by David Kronman, for $70, on furniture in his house at 154 Third avenue, in support of Kronman's testimony given yesterday.

The first witness called was John H. Welch, a Jew, who said that Ward Man Hussey came to him a year ago and tried to make him pay for a sign which hung above his awning in the street.

"I said to him: 'That sign will stay longer than the brass buttons on your coat, Hussey,'" said Mr. Welch, "after that he bothered me about money, but I never paid him anything. They couldn't get anything out of me."

Mrs. Urichitt's Arrest.

The next witness was ex-Ward Man Ambrose W. Hussey, of the Delancey street station, in which precinct Mrs. Urichitt lived. He is now at Highbridge.

Hussey testified that there were very few disorderly houses in the precinct which he had in charge. He had made about ten complaints while wardman there, but had only secured three or four convictions. He admitted that he had arrested Mrs. Urichitt on the night of May 10, 1898, on the complaint of one Joseph Wardman.

Wardman Edward Shalvey was with him when the arrest was made, and took her to the station.

The witness said he had never demanded any money from her, as Mrs. Urichitt had testified, and knew of no one who had asked her for money. A man named Joseph Bloch had met him in the street who knew Mrs. Urichitt.

"This man Bloch told me afterwards that Mrs. Urichitt had paid money to a man in the Eleventh Precinct named Charles A. Place," said Hussey.

"Is Mr. Place in court?" asked Mr. Moss.

A good-looking young man rose up in the audience and addressed by Police Officer Hussey as Place. He said he had lived at Plainfield, N. J.

Hussey said that Bloch was formerly employed by him as a stool pigeon. His examination was interrupted at this point by Mr. Coffey, who had come in with District-Attorney Fellows.

Mr. Coffey said he had an important communication to make affecting the District-Attorney's office. He recalled the fact that the Committee had been hampered during its investigation by the fear of witnesses that they would be indicted, arrested and railroaded to State Prison for their testimony. He testified, and that Col. Fellows had appeared before the Committee and guaranteed that no witness who came forward would be interfered with.

"I want to say," said Mr. Coffey, "that Col. Fellows has carried out his promise faithfully, and far from interfering with our witnesses, he has placed the machinery of his office at the disposal of the Committee in securing indictments against witnesses who have refused to testify. I say this in justice to the District-Attorney's office, and to show his attitude toward this Committee."

"If any of our witnesses have been interfered with it has not been by the

ENANTS SECURED FOR FLATS, 14 WORD HOUSES, ROOMS, THROUGH TO-MORROW'S 30 CTS.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

COL. FELLOWS SPEAKS OUT.

Declares He Will Do Nothing to Hamper the Lexow Committee.

EX-WARD MAN HUSSEY'S STORY

Tells the Investigating Senators About Mrs. Urichitt's Arrest.

ACCUSES CHARLES A. PLACE.

Stool Pigeon Bloch Told Him that the Oppressed Woman Had Paid That Officer Money.

The old Part III. General Sessions Court room, which is the headquarters of the Lexow Committee, presented a striking contrast this morning to the scene of yesterday.

The army of clubbers had disappeared, and not a single bluecoat was to be seen. In place of the array of ruffians, convicted of brutal assaults upon unoffending citizens, the witness-box was filled with a group of anxious-looking women, who looked as if they might have had some unpleasant dealings with the police, and were dreading the ordeal for which they had been summoned.

One of them carried in her arms a small child, while another, a woman of a similar nature.

"We have a plethora of these matters," he said, "and we shall only select a few to show the committee. We could not possibly bring out every case, but we have a big pile of police-station blotters on the table before him. Capt. William Schultz, of the Delancey street station, of the Mercer street station, came in before the work began, and with them one or two patrolmen in uniform."

Senator O'Connor called the Committee to order. In the absence of Chairman Lexow, Senators Bradley, Pound and Robertson being the other members present, Mr. Coffey was not present at the opening.

Mr. Moss produced and offered in evidence a chattel mortgage, executed by David Kronman, for $70, on furniture in his house at 154 Third avenue, in support of Kronman's testimony given yesterday.

The first witness called was John H. Welch, a Jew, who said that Ward Man Hussey came to him a year ago and tried to make him pay for a sign which hung above his awning in the street.

"I said to him: 'That sign will stay longer than the brass buttons on your coat, Hussey,'" said Mr. Welch, "after that he bothered me about money, but I never paid him anything. They couldn't get anything out of me."

Mrs. Urichitt's Arrest.

The next witness was ex-Ward Man Ambrose W. Hussey, of the Delancey street station, in which precinct Mrs. Urichitt lived. He is now at Highbridge.

Hussey testified that there were very few disorderly houses in the precinct which he had in charge. He had made about ten complaints while wardman there, but had only secured three or four convictions. He admitted that he had arrested Mrs. Urichitt on the night of May 10, 1898, on the complaint of one Joseph Wardman.

Wardman Edward Shalvey was with him when the arrest was made, and took her to the station.

The witness said he had never demanded any money from her, as Mrs. Urichitt had testified, and knew of no one who had asked her for money. A man named Joseph Bloch had met him in the street who knew Mrs. Urichitt.

"This man Bloch told me afterwards that Mrs. Urichitt had paid money to a man in the Eleventh Precinct named Charles A. Place," said Hussey.

"Is Mr. Place in court?" asked Mr. Moss.

A good-looking young man rose up in the audience and addressed by Police Officer Hussey as Place. He said he had lived at Plainfield, N. J.

Hussey said that Bloch was formerly employed by him as a stool pigeon. His examination was interrupted at this point by Mr. Coffey, who had come in with District-Attorney Fellows.

Mr. Coffey said he had an important communication to make affecting the District-Attorney's office. He recalled the fact that the Committee had been hampered during its investigation by the fear of witnesses that they would be indicted, arrested and railroaded to State Prison for their testimony. He testified, and that Col. Fellows had appeared before the Committee and guaranteed that no witness who came forward would be interfered with.

"I want to say," said Mr. Coffey, "that Col. Fellows has carried out his promise faithfully, and far from interfering with our witnesses, he has placed the machinery of his office at the disposal of the Committee in securing indictments against witnesses who have refused to testify. I say this in justice to the District-Attorney's office, and to show his attitude toward this Committee."

"If any of our witnesses have been interfered with it has not been by the

ENANTS SECURED FOR FLATS, 14 WORD HOUSES, ROOMS, THROUGH TO-MORROW'S 30 CTS.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

COL. FELLOWS SPEAKS OUT.

Declares He Will Do Nothing to Hamper the Lexow Committee.

EX-WARD MAN HUSSEY'S STORY

Tells the Investigating Senators About Mrs. Urichitt's Arrest.

ACCUSES CHARLES A. PLACE.

Stool Pigeon Bloch Told Him that the Oppressed Woman Had Paid That Officer Money.

The old Part III. General Sessions Court room, which is the headquarters of the Lexow Committee, presented a striking contrast this morning to the scene of yesterday.

The army of clubbers had disappeared, and not a single bluecoat was to be seen. In place of the array of ruffians, convicted of brutal assaults upon unoffending citizens, the witness-box was filled with a group of anxious-looking women, who looked as if they might have had some unpleasant dealings with the police, and were dreading the ordeal for which they had been summoned.

One of them carried in her arms a small child, while another, a woman of a similar nature.

"We have a plethora of these matters," he said, "and we shall only select a few to show the committee. We could not possibly bring out every case, but we have a big pile of police-station blotters on the table before him. Capt. William Schultz, of the Delancey street station, of the Mercer street station, came in before the work began, and with them one or two patrolmen in uniform."

Senator O'Connor called the Committee to order. In the absence of Chairman Lexow, Senators Bradley, Pound and Robertson being the other members present, Mr. Coffey was not present at the opening.

Mr. Moss produced and offered in evidence a chattel mortgage, executed by David Kronman, for $70, on furniture in his house at 154 Third avenue, in support of Kronman's testimony given yesterday.

The first witness called was John H. Welch, a Jew, who said that Ward Man Hussey came to him a year ago and tried to make him pay for a sign which hung above his awning in the street.

"I said to him: 'That sign will stay longer than the brass buttons on your coat, Hussey,'" said Mr. Welch, "after that he bothered me about money, but I never paid him anything. They couldn't get anything out of me."

Mrs. Urichitt's Arrest.

The next witness was ex-Ward Man Ambrose W. Hussey, of the Delancey street station, in which precinct Mrs. Urichitt lived. He is now at Highbridge.

Hussey testified that there were very few disorderly houses in the precinct which he had in charge. He had made about ten complaints while wardman there, but had only secured three or four convictions. He admitted that he had arrested Mrs. Urichitt on the night of May 10, 1898, on the complaint of one Joseph Wardman.

Wardman Edward Shalvey was with him when the arrest was made, and took her to the station.

The witness said he had never demanded any money from her, as Mrs. Urichitt had testified, and knew of no one who had asked her for money. A man named Joseph Bloch had met him in the street who knew Mrs. Urichitt.

"This man Bloch told me afterwards that Mrs. Urichitt had paid money to a man in the Eleventh Precinct named Charles A. Place," said Hussey.

"Is Mr. Place in court?" asked Mr. Moss.

A good-looking young man rose up in the audience and addressed by Police Officer Hussey as Place. He said he had lived at Plainfield, N. J.

Hussey said that Bloch was formerly employed by him as a stool pigeon. His examination was interrupted at this point by Mr. Coffey, who had come in with District-Attorney Fellows.

Mr. Coffey said he had an important communication to make affecting the District-Attorney's office. He recalled the fact that the Committee had been hampered during its investigation by the fear of witnesses that they would be indicted, arrested and railroaded to State Prison for their testimony. He testified, and that Col. Fellows had appeared before the Committee and guaranteed that no witness who came forward would be interfered with.

"I want to say," said Mr. Coffey, "that Col. Fellows has carried out his promise faithfully, and far from interfering with our witnesses, he has placed the machinery of his office at the disposal of the Committee in securing indictments against witnesses who have refused to testify. I say this in justice to the District-Attorney's office, and to show his attitude toward this Committee."

"If any of our witnesses have been interfered with it has not been by the

ENANTS SECURED FOR FLATS, 14 WORD HOUSES, ROOMS, THROUGH TO-MORROW'S 30 CTS.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

COL. FELLOWS SPEAKS OUT.

Declares He Will Do Nothing to Hamper the Lexow Committee.

EX-WARD MAN HUSSEY'S STORY

Tells the Investigating Senators About Mrs. Urichitt's Arrest.

ACCUSES CHARLES A. PLACE.

Stool Pigeon Bloch Told Him that the Oppressed Woman Had Paid That Officer Money.

The old Part III. General Sessions Court room, which is the headquarters of the Lexow Committee, presented a striking contrast this morning to the scene of yesterday.

The army of clubbers had disappeared, and not a single bluecoat was to be seen. In place of the array of ruffians, convicted of brutal assaults upon unoffending citizens, the witness-box was filled with a group of anxious-looking women, who looked as if they might have had some unpleasant dealings with the police, and were dreading the ordeal for which they had been summoned.

One of them carried in her arms a small child, while another, a woman of a similar nature.

"We have a plethora of these matters," he said, "and we shall only select a few to show the committee. We could not possibly bring out every case, but we have a big pile of police-station blotters on the table before him. Capt. William Schultz, of the Delancey street station, of the Mercer street station, came in before the work began, and with them one or two patrolmen in uniform."

Senator O'Connor called the Committee to order. In the absence of Chairman Lexow, Senators Bradley, Pound and Robertson being the other members present, Mr. Coffey was not present at the opening.

Mr. Moss produced and offered in evidence a chattel mortgage, executed by David Kronman, for $70, on furniture in his house at 154 Third avenue, in support of Kronman's testimony given yesterday.

The first witness called was John H. Welch, a Jew, who said that Ward Man Hussey came to him a year ago and tried to make him pay for a sign which hung above his awning in the street.

"I said to him: 'That sign will stay longer than the brass buttons on your coat, Hussey,'" said Mr. Welch, "after that he bothered me about money, but I never paid him anything. They couldn't get anything out of me."

Mrs. Urichitt's Arrest.

The next witness was ex-Ward Man Ambrose W. Hussey, of the Delancey street station, in which precinct Mrs. Urichitt lived. He is now at Highbridge.

Hussey testified that there were very few disorderly houses in the precinct which he had in charge. He had made about ten complaints while wardman there, but had only secured three or four convictions. He admitted that he had arrested Mrs. Urichitt on the night of May 10, 1898, on the complaint of one Joseph Wardman.

Wardman Edward Shalvey was with him when the arrest was made, and took her to the station.

The witness said he had never demanded any money from her, as Mrs. Urichitt had testified, and knew of no one who had asked her for money. A man named Joseph Bloch had met him in the street who knew Mrs. Urichitt.

"This man Bloch told me afterwards that Mrs. Urichitt had paid money to a man in the Eleventh Precinct named Charles A. Place," said Hussey.

"Is Mr. Place in court?" asked Mr. Moss.

A good-looking young man rose up in the audience and addressed by Police Officer Hussey as Place. He said he had lived at Plainfield, N. J.

Hussey said that Bloch was formerly employed by him as a stool pigeon. His examination was interrupted at this point by Mr. Coffey, who had come in with District-Attorney Fellows.

Mr. Coffey said he had an important communication to make affecting the District-Attorney's office. He recalled the fact that the Committee had been hampered during its investigation by the fear of witnesses that they would be indicted, arrested and railroaded to State Prison for their testimony. He testified, and that Col. Fellows had appeared before the Committee and guaranteed that no witness who came forward would be interfered with.

"I want to say," said Mr. Coffey, "that Col. Fellows has carried out his promise faithfully, and far from interfering with our witnesses, he has placed the machinery of his office at the disposal of the Committee in securing indictments against witnesses who have refused to testify. I say this in justice to the District-Attorney's office, and to show his attitude toward this Committee."

"If any of our witnesses have been interfered with it has not been by the

ENANTS SECURED FOR FLATS, 14 WORD HOUSES, ROOMS, THROUGH TO-MORROW'S 30 CTS.

PRICE ONE CENT.